

Palmer's Tire Sales Boosted By Time System

Rubber Merchants Praising Advertising for Getting Great Results

Fred Palmer, tire merchant, announces that his new time payment plan has been received with enthusiasm by the buying public. "We advertised this time payment system in The Torrance Herald and add Lomita News and received great results," said Mr. Palmer. "Our orders for tires on time payments exceeded our brightest hopes. It not only pays to advertise, but we know now that the public appreciates the time payment plan."

Local Chevrolet Dealers Winner of Big Contest

Jack Hanson Wins Big Cup in 10-City Sales Competition

Jack Hanson on behalf of the Torrance Motor Company, of which he is president, will receive a handsome silver trophy at the Elita Cafe in Los Angeles tonight for winning a Chevrolet sales contest conducted in ten Southern cities during the contest. Other cities in the competition were Santa Ana, Orange, Fullerton, Anaheim, Wilmington, Long Beach, Redondo Beach, San Pedro, and Gardena.

During the contest each dealer was pitted against another in a novel "turkey and bean" race. The local firm competed in this contest against Wilmington, and won. As a result the Torrance firm members will dine on turkey tonight, while the Wilmington boys will partake of a menu consisting of bean soup, bean salad, baked beans, and bean cakes. The losers will pay for the winners' turkey feast.

ROTARY-KIWANIS PARTY ATTENDED BY 200

There was plenty of fun and excitement last Thursday night at the Women's Clubhouse when the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs of Torrance celebrated their birthday anniversary with a dinner and dance.

The climax of the evening came when "a wild woman" made a hurried entrance, howling over Arthur Finster, door guardian, and rushed down the aisle shouting for "her husband." Brandishing a deadly looking revolver, she frightened Jim Poston, "the husband," Torrance Piggly Wiggly manager, who crawled behind a table and rushed out the door, with the angry woman in pursuit.

After the excitement had subsided it was announced that the "wife" was Mrs. Winters of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer moving picture studio, whose services were secured by Mr. Finster of the Beacon Drug Company, of which his store is a branch.

Honor guests were District Governor Fred McClung of Rotary and Lieutenant-Governor Phillip M. McCaugh of Kiwanis. Howard Deems, famous Kiwanis song leader of Long Beach, led community singing and introduced several novel stunts.

Mrs. Elsie Teal Bellini favored with piano solos, and Mrs. Amy L. Kaynor of Pasadena, sister of James Leech, sang several selections.

The program was arranged by Charles Schultz and Russ Page of Kiwanis and Rotary, respectively. After dinner dancing was enjoyed.

More than 200 attended the party.
